

SECURITY SCREEN DOOR 5 YEAR WARRANTY

The R.Lang Company warrants that its Tru-Frame® Security Screen Doors will be free of defects in material or workmanship that significantly impairs their operation and proper usage. This warranty applies for 5 years from the date of purchase, provided they are installed and maintained in accordance with the manufacturer's instructions and good construction policy.

This warranty applies to doors purchased after October 1, 1994, for use in owner occupied single-family homes. R. Lang Company will repair or furnish replacements for products or components found to be defective or, at its option, refund the original purchase price of the product.

This warranty is provided to the original homeowner and may not be assigned or transferred. This warranty is limited and does not cover the following: products that are not paid for; glass breakage; screen damage; altered or reinstalled products; problems relating to applied finishes; failures caused by structural settlement, damage due to accidents or abuse, forced entry, vapors or chemicals; improper installation; products broken in transit to job site by customer or customer's representative, incorrect use or application; or acts of God. This warranty excludes incidental or consequential damages such as the costs of repairing or replacing property damaged as a result of product failure or any other causes. Furnishing replacement for the original product or component, including any glass panels, shall not extend the time period covered by the warranty. The replacement product or component shall be warranted only for the unexpired portion of the warranty covering the original product furnished.

This is the entire warranty, and no employee or representative of R. Lang Company has authority to change or modify it.

Selection of Tru-Frame® Security Screen Doors to conform to all local applicable laws and ordinances, building codes and safety requirements is the sole responsibility of the architect, homeowner and/or contractor. R. Lang Company has no responsibility in this regard.

R. Lang Company reserves the right to discontinue or make changes to any of its Security Screen Doors. If the products or components covered by the warranty are not available, R. Lang Co. shall have the right to furnish a substitute, replacement component or product that, in R. Lang Co.'s opinion, is of equal quality or value.

This warranty is in lieu of, and excludes, any other warranty, expressed or implied, including but not limited to any implied warranty or merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, or otherwise.

This warranty gives you specific legal rights. You may also have other rights which vary from state to state.

Some states do not allow limitations on how long an implied warranty lasts, or the exclusions or limitations of incidental or consequential damages. Therefore, the above limitations may not apply.

Any claim made under the provisions of this warranty should be in writing and addressed to:

R. Lang Company, Customer Service Dept.
PO Box 7960, Visalia, CA 93290.

Please include with your claim proof of your original purchase of the Tru-Frame® Security Screen Door in question. With any claim under this warranty, R. Lang Company reserves the right to inspect the product in place and as originally installed.
